

HAVE YOU -COULD YOU?

Have you told the old, old story to anyone today
To someone who was troubled, perhaps had gone astray?
So many people in this world have a feeling of unrest
They don't know the answer or what to do is best.

Could you give the answer to a weary, sin
sick soul
Of a loving Heavenly Father who can make the sinner whole?
Who will help to bear the burden of a soul
that now is crushed, His voice once stilled the angry waves and the stormy sea was hushed.
-Albert E. Long

Box 998 Apache Junction, Ariz. 85220

Poem, by Albert E. Long, son of J.H. Long Courtesy of Jean Elliott (Douglas)