

LINDSAY, ONTARIO, FRIDAY, JULY 11TH, 1958

Didsbury-McQuade

Omeme (PNS) — Christ Church, Omeme, was the scene of a pretty July wedding on Saturday evening when Rev. R. S. Mansfield, rector, united in marriage Donna Marie McQuade, only daughter of Mrs. Russel McQuade and the late Mr. McQuade, to David Didsbury, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Didsbury of Brampton.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Arthur McQuade. She chose a light blue suit with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. Ronald Graham was matron of honour and wore a light blue suit with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Philip Didsbury, brother of the groom, was groomsman.

For the reception in the Legion Hall the bride's mother chose a navy blue lace over taffeta gown with white accessories and a white gardenia corsage. The groom's mother assisted in receiving wearing a two-toned gray dress with red accessories and a corsage of red roses.

The happy couple left on a honeymoon to Muskoka and will reside in Orillia on their return.
