

Ex-Campbellford Mayor Widely Mourned In Town

CAMPBELLFORD (ENS)—The funeral service for Frank F. Long, mayor for 11 years, was held today in St. Andrew's Presbyterian church. The Rev. A. E. Toombs conducted the service and burial was made in Mt. Pleasant cemetery.

Mr. Long, one of Campbellford's best-known and respected citizens, died in hospital Sunday night following a short illness. He was 77.

Mr. Long was born in Peterborough, the son of the late John Henry Long and former Mary Dorothy Scharfenburg. At the age of 14 he left Peterborough and went to Watertown, U.S.A., where he learned the trade of candy-making. Later he opened his own confectionery business in Campbellford and operated it, along with his son, Francis, for the past 46 years. He was an accomplished amateur magician, and was well known throughout the district, where he provided entertainment in the form of feats of magic for various groups. He was interested in photography and his latest hobby was collecting color slides.

The deceased was a member of Rameses Shrine, Toronto, Moore Preceptory Knights Templar, Peterborough, Golden Rule Lodge and Ionic Chapter, R.A.M., Campbellford. He was a past district deputy grand master of Peterborough district.

Active in civic affairs, Mr. Long was mayor of Campbellford from 1934 to 1945 and was a member of the town council for four years prior to his 11-year term as mayor.

Surviving, besides his wife, the former Violet Peeling, are two sons, Douglas of Hamilton and Francis of Campbellford; two brothers, Albert E. Long of Toronto and Herbert Long of Kingston; two sisters, Mrs. Ethel
