

LONG—PHILLIPS

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized on Tuesday, Oct. 17th, at St. Mary's Rectory, Campbellford, by Rev. Father J. P. Collins, when Margaret Agnes Phillips, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick E. Phillips, became the bride of Tpr. Elmer T. Long, of Camp Borden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Long, of Kingston, Ont.

The bride entered the rectory on the arm of her father. She looked charming in a floor-length gown of white sheer over taffeta, with sweetheart neckline, shoulder-length veil held in place by a wreath of white carnations. White lace gloves and white shoes completed her attire. She carried an arm bouquet of deep red roses, and her only ornament was a gold locket and chain belonging to her great aunt.

The bridesmaids were Miss Mary Desbarbieux, gowned in a floor-length pale blue sheer, with hat and matching accessories of white, carrying a colonial bouquet of mixed flowers, and Miss Irene Young in pink satin floor-length dress, with hat and matching accessories of white. She also carried a colonial bouquet of mixed flowers. Mr. Aloysius Desbarbieux, of Peterboro, and Pte. Gerard Culkeen, of Camp Borden, cousins of the bride, assisted the groom.

After the ceremony, a lovely dinner was served at the bride's home on Raglan street to about 30 guests. The table was tastefully decorated in pink and white streamers and a white bell, centred by a four tiered wedding cake. The dinner was served by Misses Irene and Agatha Culkeen, Theresa Desbarbieux and Mrs. A. Warner.

Assisting the bride and groom receiving the guests were the bride's parents. The bride's mother chose a navy alpaca crepe dress, suit effect, with navy hat and accessories and a corsage of gold roses. The bride and groom left amid showers of confetti and good wishes for points East for a brief honeymoon. For travelling, the bride chose a brown crepe dress with gold sequins and brown tweed coat and accessories, and corsage of roses.

The groom's gift to the bride was a gold chain and pendant, to the bridesmaids plastic pendants, and to the groomsmen black leather billfolds.

o-o-o-o

A shower was held in honour of Margaret Phillips at the home of Mrs. J. H. Smith, Grand Road, when about 20 friends of the bride gathered there. The evening was spent in games and cards. At about 11 p.m., Mrs. Smith entered the living room with a basket decorated in pink and white, filled with many lovely and useful gifts. The bride opened the gifts and thanked each donor. Afterwards a lovely lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Wilbert Ward. A very pleasant evening was brought to a close by singing "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow."

A number of friends of Tpr. Elmer and Mrs. Long, recent bride and groom, held a miscellaneous shower at the Parish Hall on Friday evening, Oct. 20, where a pleasant evening was spent in dancing. After lunch, the groom thanked their many friends on behalf of himself and his bride, for the lovely gifts. After which everyone sang, "For they are Jolly Good Fellows."