

Barbara Schrader

Wed in Lindsay

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at Cambridge Street United Church, Lindsay, on July 26th, when Barbara Jean Jacqueline Schrader, daughter of Mr. Archibald Schrader and the late Mrs. Schrader, became the bride of Vernon Eugene Sproule, son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Sproule, of Oakwood.

Dr. Harold B. Neal officiated and Prof. W. E. Fletcher presided at the the organ.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride looked lovely in a gown of white lace and net over taffeta, bouffant style. Her fingertip veil of tulle illusion was fashioned with a pearl headdress and she carried a heart-shaped bouquet of red sweetheart roses and stephanotis.

Miss Ruby Schrader gowned in pink nylon net over silk, was her sister's maid of honour and the bridesmaids were Miss Eileen Schrader, sister of the bride, and Miss Betty Stata, friend of the bride, who wore identical gowns of blue nylon net over silk.

All wore headdresses to match their gowns. They carried nosegays of pink sweetheart roses and white carnations.

Mr. Grant Redditt, of Keswick, cousin of the groom, was best man and the ushers were, Mr. Grenville Schrader, of Brantford, brother of the bride, and Mr. William McGenesty, of Keswick, cousin of the groom.

The reception was held at Dun-Rovin Tea Rooms, Oakwood. Mrs. Wesley Pollard, aunt of the bride, received, wearing navy sheer with navy and white accessories. The groom's mother assisted, dressed in rose crepe and lace, both wearing corsages of gardenias.

Following the reception the happy couple left amid showers of confetti for a motor trip to Windsor and Detroit, returning via Cleveland and Buffalo.

The bride travelled in a navy sheer dress with white accessories and a corsage of red sweetheart roses.

Guests were present from London, Brantford, Buffalo, Toronto, Iroquois Falls, and other points.
