

OBITUARY

FREDERICK J. LONG

There passed away to his eternal rest a very patient invalid in the person of Frederich. J. Long on Thursday, July 31st, 1941. He was a sufferer, for 10 years, in bed with arthritis. Although it was known he would not get better his death came as a shock to all who knew him. Mr. Long spent the most of his life in Snowdon Township. He was in his 47th year and will be greatly missed by those who cared for him. He leaves to mourn his wife and one son, Donald. Lloyd was called home nearly two years ago; also his aged mother, one brother, three sisters, Mrs. George Dufty (Eliza), Mrs. Roland Newman (Agnes), and Mrs. Hector Newman (Eva).

Mr. Gilliam of the Baptist Church, Kinmount, preached a very impressive sermon, taking as his subject the 14th Chapter of St. John "Let not your hearts' be troubled; ye believe in Gad, believe also in me". Two young ladies from the States brought a sweet message in song.

The pall bearers were Messrs. Bert Schroter, John Hulbig, George Dufty Dalton Wruth, Jas. Simpson and Neil Wilson. Mr. Long was laid to rest in the Kinmount Cemetery.

'Brief life is here our portion,
Brief sorrow, short lived care;
The life that knows no ending,
The tearless life is there.'

Those that came from a distance to attend the funeral of the late Mr. Frederick J. Long were Mrs. Eva Newman and daughters, May and Irene of Toronto, Mr. George Long of Hastings, Miss Mary Long, Toronto, Mrs. Jas. Pigeon, Toronto, Mr. Mrs. McQuade of Omemece and Miss Irene Dufty of Lindsay.
